Suffer for Doing What Is Good

<sup>13</sup> And who is the one who will harm you if you are a zealous adherent for what is good? <sup>14</sup> But even if you might suffer for the sake of righteousness, you are blessed. And do not be afraid of their intimidation or be disturbed, <sup>15</sup> but set Christ apart as Lord in your hearts, always ready to make a defense to anyone who asks you for an accounting concerning the hope that is in you. <sup>16</sup> But do so with courtesy and respect, having a good conscience, so that in the things in which you are slandered, the ones who malign your good conduct in Christ may be put to shame. <sup>17</sup> For it is better to suffer for doing good, if God wills it, than for doing evil.

<sup>18</sup> For Christ also suffered once for sins, the just for the unjust, in order that he could bring you to God, being put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit, <sup>19</sup> in which also he went and proclaimed to the spirits in prison, <sup>20</sup> who were formerly disobedient, when the patience of God waited in the days of Noah, while an ark was being constructed, in which a few—that is, eight souls—were rescued through water. <sup>21</sup> And also, corresponding to this, baptism now saves you, not the removal of dirt from the flesh, but an appeal to God for a good conscience through the resurrection of Jesus Christ, <sup>22</sup> who is at the right hand of God, having gone into heaven, with angels and authorities and powers having been subjected to him.
